The Who's of Haiti

Horton Hears a Who is one of my favorite Dr. Seuss books. Horton the Elephant hears cries for help coming from a speck of dust resting on a flower. Horton decides there are people on that speck and he dedicates his life to protecting them and speaking for them. Haiti is a tiny place with little to offer. Few pay attention to the cries of this nation but cry they do. It is a desperate little country with illiteracy running at about 50%, unemployment at 70%, no good system of education, poor health care, bad water and lack of simple basic services. Who will hear their cries and speak for them? No you are not a powerful politician or a billionaire with unlimited resources but you need not be rich or powerful to hear their cry and respond with your prayers but just as important a small donation which is very big in the little Whoville called Haiti.

How to Make a Contribution

- Make your check payable to Bethlehem Lutheran Church.
- In the memo line write Haiti.

Bethlehem will be sending her contributions in January of each year. We wire money by way of a bank in New Jersey. It is then transferred to Fonkoze Credit Union where First Lutheran of Cap Haitian has an account.
